08:01:08.00 Going to rock ? Going to slam the jam ? With a brand new note ? Banging my head with a billy goat. Yeehaw big and rich. Making a splash boat show. Could you please bring some warm temperatures to go withit. Be out there in a little while taking a tour of the new boats. I know you are in the market of a new boat. I cant imagine what it would cost to try to keep that around here. People dont know if you live in manhattan and park a car here. Thats why people dont have arrests cars. It costs like $400. You can imagine what the fees would be. I think he takes the boat to work in the morning. Of course, zip right across. With gold propellers. Take a boat. Quite the boating guy. During the summer, summer months he likes to pull up the boat outside the marina. We do have a lot of news making headlines today. Get to that. While you were sleeping a small plane crashing into a california neighborhood leaving residents terrified. Crashed into my neighbors home. You see this [bleep] on fire. The two people on board a man and a 9-year-old boy killed when the plane hit the front lawn. No one on the ground though was hurt. The plane was just 800 feet away from the runway of a small airport in fresno. An arizona man is under arrest after climbing a fence at the phoenix airport allegedly and running toward a plane that had just landed. This surveillance video shows the man just after he touched the planes engine. As his mugshot suggests, come take a look at it, police say 49-year-old robert funk was not in a stable frame of mind. One thing they noticed right away is that he was definitely under the influence of alcohol which they could detect and even possibly drug based on his bizarre behavior. Landed in atlanta with 136 passengers on board. Someone on board the plane snapped this photo of him standing on the runway. The pilot shot off the planes engine to try to keep him from getting hurt. He climbed over 18-foot barb wire fence to get to that runway. They still dont know why he did this. This is actually the second airport breach this week. A newark international a breach on christmas day. It was freezing. In womens clothing i think. President obama citing twin twin signing twin budget deals but on the backs of our heroes. Funding the government for the next two years but cuts benefits for military retirees. The defense bill provides $550 billion for military budget plus 80 billion for the afghanistan war but eases gitmo detainee restrictions. As a retired vet im appalled that congress would take benefits from veterans in a poor attempt to it agree to it a budget. I agree this will definitely effect recruiting and retention. And ronald says the ones that past this law should be taking a pay cut. We need a total house cleaning in washington. Cathy tweets instead of cutting the pensions of our brave military and women. Why not cut can the pension of president, congress and senate. And snoop dogg has got friends in high places and his newest friend, secretary of state, john kerry. The state department retreating this instagram video of the rapper exchanging a few words with kerry and even a fist bump between the two. Snoop dogg performed at the white houses kennedy awards celebration earlier this month. Those are your news headlines. Is he still snoop dogg or did he change his name. I dont know. Interest must be a real relationship going on there because of the parody video. Is snoop lying? Get it while its hot. Get it while its hot. Talking about affordable care. The secretary of state would probably understand snoop talk. For chisum. Terrible joke my wife. I will tweet it to you later. All right. Lets talk about the affordable care act because this morning we are a bombshell new report out of "U.S.A. today" report that the affordable care act turns out not to be terribly affordable for more than half of the counties in 34 states. Those who are living at the margins of society. Those who already dont make enough money to put food on the table and provide enough money. Those folks bronze plans, really affordable plans, the cheapest, cheapest plans which would account for 8% of their income. Turns out those plans arent going to be available for those people after all. Goes against the grain of the heart of affordable care act which was to basically say no one who gets sick should go broke but people who are already broke may find themselves getting broke. When they go to the emergency room in the past. The emergency room usually footed the bill and took care of all of that which was a problem in itself. These particular people are going to go there with the affordable care act, the bronze plan and he they will have to pay subsidies and premiums. Its going to be a different world for them. Wasnt this pedaled as it was going to be saving the average family $2,500 a year and the people paying for this was essentially going to be the evil top 2% or whatever it was. Just the very rich, the very wealthy and now its not even affordable for the average american family its starting to effect democrats at the polls. Obamacare is really paying the price there at the polls. We have one that we can show you. The gap is really widening for democrats there. This is the congressional. If 2016 im sorry, in 2014, if the congressional republicans right now, huge swing from where it was back in october. Now up to 4 the% compared to democrats at 44%. So much so that the democratic congressional campaign committee got some sweats over the holiday season. They sent out email immediately asking for cash citing tough news as they put it in their email. In fact, they were blaming republicans. I find this to be hilarious part of this email. Blaming republicans for the poor rollout of obama care. They say we need this cash because we want to stop the smears and the lies that have been spread about the affordable care act. The bottom line is you cant mix with the truth here no one read the bill. 2,000 Pages. Nancy pelosi said lets pass it and then we will read it all the democrats pass this bill. Republicans had nothing to do with that particular component and they didnt have anything to do with the rollout of the web site. Right. The web site was totally not on the republicans. Not one republican voted for this, for the democratic national campaign committee to say hey we want to send us cash thats why obamacare has been having all these issues. Meanwhile the president has had to make 15 revisions to the law. Is that republicans fault as well. He has had to make 15 different revisions to the law. Unilateral. Without the approval of congress even though they needed the approval of congress to get it passed in the first place which drives some people crazy because now they are saying is this banana republic or the law of the land. Charles krauthammer using that exact phrase. This is something that you do in a banana republic to use your word. Unilateral decision making. Where its actually lawless. And you remember what was the biggest lie of 2013? What has it been deemed. If you like your doctor you can keep your doctor. If you like your plan, you can keep your plan, we have started to see the presidents closest confidants robert gibbs saying less than a week ago this has been the worst year of president obamas second term, first term presidency in general. So we have got some polls to show you of this, too. The approval rating for president obama now the worst its ever been, 56% disapproval. 41% Approval. And the presidents job approval rating, 39%. The gallup tracking poll. Thats the second worst ever approval. Second lowest in his presidency in this poll. Just not good times for a president. He needs that he is in hawaii trying to regroup. Trying to come back fresh for the new year he is going to need it to get immigration reform and. Glimg the last congress they had prior to going to hawaii he intimated there could be some changes forthcoming. You have got to ask the questions. Does that mean a change within his cabinet. Particularly health and human services secretary kathleen sebelius who has claimed responsibility for the poor rollout of obamacare through healthcare.gov. The other thing, too, is what will this mean for the primaries in 2014? What will this mean for the 2016 general election? A lot of people, particularly democrats, are now saying they already know who they want to support, basically hillary has already won for democrats looking ahead to 2016. The big question is it too early for 2016. No. We can start talking about that now. Start predicting the nfl season the day after the super bowl for the previous season. Here is how republicans look right now if you roll down the G.O.P. list right now. Self-identified republicans. If the nomination race were held today. Chris christie the top of the new fowns poll. Jeb bush coming in at 12%. Ted cruz at 12%. Of course no one has announced they are actually running for president at this time. Chris christie though famously a few weeks ago says the G.O.P. doesnt have a party problem it has a candidate problem. To which we asked ann coulter that problem. I say chris christie has a candidate problem he is one of the problems with the party. Thats because a lot of people cant handle christies demeanor. She feels like she that he really let down the republican party on amnesty and on immigration reform. That is a big problem. When he goes into the south and border states he would have a significant problem. At this point its atoss-up. Its anybodys game. We are first alert forecasting quite early here. But its definitely not the case for the democratic nominee though as mentioned hillary clinton taking 68%. And then a very distant second joe biden at 12%. And so, the idea about all of this though is hillary clinton, if she is the candidate, is she going to be a strong candidate? And charles krauthammer thinks she is actually going to be weak. Here is why. I think the status she enjoys among democrats is semi divine. Its not going to be a coronation. Its going to be a worship service. It will go on for six or eight months. I dont think there is any serious challenger. There might be noise but i dont even think that the left we have talked about is that significant. Its a noisy left. I dont see any impediment on the way to her nomination. I think she is going to be rather weak which if she decides to run which i think she is. She will be a relatively weak owe pony nentd and republicans i think are going to have a really good shot at the white house. Charles saying its a worship service. Equate her to that status. The bottom line is, i think she is going to do well with women. I think she is going to do well with democrats. She will pull some intdz. I may be wrong. She will have to answer the benghazi question. I think thats going to come up. But i dont think she is going to be a weak candidate. I disagree. Its never a smart move to disagree with charles on much. I completely disagree with him here. I wish he would have explained more why he believes she would a weak candidate. The money machine hillary has in place already. The connections hillary has in place already. Bill clinton stumping for her. Very popular expresident out there to bring in independent voices. Single women specifically where the G.O.P. was hurt big time in the last election. Single women, latinos in this country. I dont know. I dont know how she is a weak candidate. You see the mainstream media starting to push it too. She was one of barbara walters most interesting people of the year. Really this year what is it that she has done this year in particular it. She is interesting but why this year? We will continue to follow it meantime while washington lawmakers are enjoying christmas vacation. More than 1 million americans remain unemployed and democrats say there is proof republicans are to blame. Thats next. And 2013 didnt turn out to be the year for anthony weiner. Dont worry the disgraced congressman now speculating on his plans for 2014. Could he be running again? Wisest kid, am i forgetting something? No holidays complete without campbells green bean casserole. Wish you were here. [Doorbell] [gasps] [gong] [wisest kid] mm! Mm! Good! 08:54:02.00 You got your bottom machine on there do anything youwant to. The great part about this is you can sink this to your smart phone or tablet. Sit at home your family. Plan out your weekend andyour trip. Where you are going to go fishing and skiing. Bring it to the boat. It will sink sync right up. Starts at $175,000 a bit pricey but for the serious fisherman as you mentioned. Big yellow boat. Glass run gt 187. Brand new jet boat by glass tron. A wave of the future when you seat jet boats. Perfect family boat for under $250 a month you canhave this boat. Take off and go skiing and wake boarding and do anything you want to on that boat. Its easy to tow too. Vacation down to florida or the coast, take it rightalong with you. Total bill of that is 35,000, 40,000, like you said you can finance it 2 auto a month. Then you have the jet skisall the way at the end there. We have the yamaha ho. Cadillac of wave runners if you want to go out there 08:55:06.00 You can take off with that you can go fast, put three people on it ski behind that thing if you want to. Once again, its very lightweight. Anna, we cant fish with that. You know what? I dont care. You can put me on one of those jet skis any day. There is a stigma that you have to be rich in order to own a boat, but thats not really the case. Three out of four families that own a boat in the united states makes less than $100,000. For under $250 a month you can find a boat at any of of the great boat shows all over the united states which starts right here with the progressive insurance new york boat show starting on. Silent. Silent. When excellent. Excellent. When can we see this boat show. Starts new years dayafter very much center in new york city. Chicago two weeks, atlanta next week. The grand daddy of them all. You have american boats. Almost all boats are made in america. This one right here is madein north carolina. My home state. There you go. 93% Of boats are built inthe united states. Still a very americancompany. And plus the other great thing is its 35 billion-dollar industryright here in the united states. Keith, thank you verymuch. You know they make some of these boats in northcarolina as well. They said this one is from north carolina. Right here from north carolina. Brand new. Clayton, over to you. Wisest kid, am i forgetting something?

08:01:08.00 Going to rock ? Going to slam the jam ? With a brand new note ? Banging my head with a billy goat. Yeehaw big and rich. Making a splash boat show. Could you please bring some warm temperatures to go withit. Be out there in a little while taking a tour of the new boats. I know you are in the market of a new boat. I cant imagine what it would cost to try to keep that around here. People dont know if you live in manhattan and park a car here. Thats why people dont have arrests cars. It costs like $400. You can imagine what the fees would be. I think he takes the boat to work in the morning. Of course, zip right across. With gold propellers. Take a boat. Quite the boating guy. During the summer, summer months he likes to pull up the boat outside the marina. We do have a lot of news making headlines today. Get to that. While you were sleeping a small plane crashing into acalifornia neighborhood leaving residents terrified. Crashed into my neighborshome. You see this [bleep] on fire. The two people on board a man and a 9-year-old boy killed when the plane hit the front lawn. No one on the ground thoughwas hurt. The plane was just 800 feet away from the runway of a small airport in fresno. An arizona man is under arrest after climbing a fence at the phoenix airport allegedly and running toward a plane that had just landed.This surveillance video shows the man just after he touched the planes engine. As his mugshot suggests, come take a look at it, police say 49-year-old robert funk was not in astable frame of mind. One thing they noticed right away is that he was definitely under the infliewps of alcohol which they could detect and even possibly drug based on his bizarre behavior. Landed in atlanta with 136 passengers on board. Someone on board the plane snapped this photo of him standing on the runway. The pilot shot off the planes engine to try to keep him from getting hurt. He climbed over 18-foot barb wire fence to get to thatrunway. They still dont know why he did this. This is actually the second airport breach this week. A newark international a breach on christmas day. It was freezing. In womens clothing ithink. President obama citing twin twin signing twin budget deals but on the backs of our heros. Funding the government for the next two years but cuts benefits for militaryretirees. The defense bill provides $550 billion for military budget plus 80 billion for the afghanistan war but eases gitmo detainee restrictions. As a retired vet im appalled that congress would take benefits from veterans in a poor attempt to it agree to it a budget. I agree this will definitely effect recruiting and retention. And ronald says the ones that past this law should be taking a pay cut. We need a total house cleaning in washington. Cathy tweets instead of cutting the pensions of our brave military and women. Why not cut can the pension of president, congress and senate.And snoop dogg has got friends in high places and his newest friend, secretary of state, john kerry. The state department retreating this instagram video of the rapper exchanging a few words with kerry and even a fist bump between the two. Snoop dogg performed at the white houses kennedy awards celebration earlier thismonth. Those are your newsheadlines. Is he still snoop dogg or did he change his name. I dont know. Interest must be a realrelationship going on there because of the parody video. Is snoop lying? Get it while its hot. Get it while its hot. Talking about affordable care. The secretary of state would probably understand snoop talk. For chisum. Terrible joke my wife. I will tweet it to you later. All right. Lets talk about the affordable care act because this morning we are a bombshell new report out of "U.S.A. today" reporti that the affordable care act turns out not to be terribly affordable for more than half of the counties in 34states. Those who are living at the margins of society. Those who already dont make enough money to put food on the table and provide enoughmoney. Those folks bronze plans, really affordable plans, the cheapest, cheapest plans which would account for 8% of their income. Turns out those plans arent going to be available for those people after all. Goes against the grain of the heart of affordable care act which was to basically say no one who gets sick should go broke but people who are already broke may find themselves gettingbreaker. When they go to the emergency room in the past. The emergency room usually footed the bill and took care of all of that which was a problem in itself. These particular people are going to go there with the affordable care act, the bronze plan and he they will have to pay subsidies andpremiums. Its going to be a different world for them. Wasnt this pedaled as it was going to be saving the average family $2,500 a year and the people paying for this was essentially going to be the evil top 2% or whatever it was. Just the very rich, the very wealthy and now its not even affordable for the average american family itsstarting to effect democrats at the polls. Obamacare is really paying the price there at thepolls. We have one that we can show you. The gap is really widening for democrats there. This is the congressional. If 2016 im sorry, in 2014, if the congressional republicans right now, huge swing from where it was back in october. Now up to 4 the% compared to democrats at 44%. So much so that the democratic congressional campaign committee got some sweats over the holidayseason. They sent out email immediately asking for cash citing tough news as they put it in their email. In fact, they were blaming republicans. I find this to be hilarious part of this email. Blaming republicans for the poor rollout of obama care. They say we need this cash because we want to stop the smears and the lies that have been spread about the affordable care act. The bottom line is you cant mix with the truth here no one read the bill. 2,000 Pages. Nancy pelosi said lets pass it and then we will read it it all the democrats pass this bill. Republicans had nothing to do with that particular component and they didnt have anything to do with the rollout of the web site. Right. The web site was totally not on the republicans. Not one republican voted for this, for the democratic national campaign committee to say hey we want to send us cash thats why obamacare has been having all these issues. Meanwhile the president has had to make 15 revisions to the law. Is that republicans fault as well. He has had to make 15 different revisions to the law. Unilateral. Without the approval of congress even though they needed the approval of congress to get it passed in the first place which drives some people crazy because now they are saying is this banana republic or the law of the land. Charles Krauthammer using that exact phrase. This is something that you do in a banana republic to use your word. Unilateral decision making. Where its actually lawless. And you remember what was the biggest lie of 2013? What has it been deemed. If you like your doctor you can keep your doctor. If you like your plan, you can keep your plan, we have started to see the presidents closest confidants Robert Gibbs saying less than a week ago this has been the worst year of president Obamas second term, first term presidency in general. So we have got some polls to show you of this, too. The approval rating for president Obama now the worst its ever been, 56% disapproval. 41% Approval. And the presidents job approval rating, 39%. The Gallup tracking poll. Thats the second worst ever approval. Second lowest in his presidency in this poll. Just not good times for a president. He needs that he is in Hawaii trying to regroup. Trying to come back fresh for the new year he is going to need it to get immigration reform and. GmG the last congress they had prior to going to Hawaii he intimated there could be some changes forthcoming. You have got to ask the questions. Does that mean a change within his cabinet. Particularly health and human services secretary Kathleen Sebelius who has claimed responsibility for the poor rollout of Obamacare through Healthcare.gov. The other thing, too, is what will this mean for the primaries in 2014? What will this mean for the 2016 general election? A lot of people, particularly democrats, are now saying they already know who they want to support, basically Hillary has already won for democrats looking ahead to 2016. The big question is it too early for 2016. No. We can start talking about that now. Start predicting the NFL season the day after the Super Bowl for the previous season. Here is how republicans look right now if you roll down the G.O.P. list right now. Self-identified republicans. If the nomination race were held today. Chris Christie the top of the new fawns poll. Jeb Bush coming in at 12%. Ted Cruz at 12%. Of course no one has announced they are actually running for president at this time. Chris Christie though famously a few weeks ago says the G.O.P. doesnt have a party problem it has a candidate problem. To which we asked Ann Coulter that problem. I say Chris Christie has a candidate problem he is one of the problems with the party. Thats because a lot of people cant handle Christies demeanor. She feels like she that he really let down the republican party on amnesty and on immigration reform. That is a big problem. When he goes into the south and border states he would have a significant problem. At this point its a toss-up. Its anybodys game. We are first alert forecasting quite early here. But its definitely not the case for the democratic nominee though as mentioned Hillary Clinton taking 68%. And then a very distant second Joe Biden at 12%. And so, the idea about all of this though is Hillary Clinton, if she is the candidate, is she going to be a strong candidate? And Charles Krauthammer thinks she is actually going to be weak. Here is why. I think the status she enjoys among democrats is semi-divine. Its not going to be a coronation. Its going to be a worship service. It will go on for six or eight months. I dont think there is any serious challenger. There might be noise but I dont even think that the left we have talked about is that significant. Its a noisy left. I dont see any impediment on the way to her nomination. I think she is going to be rather weak which if she decides to run which I think she is. She will be a relatively weak owe pony nentd and republicans I think are going to have a really good shot at the white house. Charles saying its a worship service. Equate her to that status. The bottom line is, I think she is going to do well with women. I think she is going to do well with democrats. She will pull some intdz. I may be wrong. She will have to answer the Benghazi question. I think thats going to come up. But I dont think she is going to be a weak candidate. I disagree. Its never a smart move to disagree with Charles on much. I completely disagree with him here. I wish he would have explained more why he believes she would a weak candidate. The money machine Hillary has in place already. The connections Hillary has in place already. Bill Clinton stumping for her. Very popular ex-president out there to bring in independent voices. Single women specifically where the G.O.P. was hurt big time in the last election. Single women, Latinos in this country. I dont know. I dont know how she is a weak candidate. You see the mainstream media starting to push it too. She was one of Barbara Walters most interesting people of the year. Really this year what is it that she has done this year in particular it. She is interesting but why this year? We will continue to follow it meantime while Washington lawmakers are enjoying Christmas vacation. More than 1 million Americans remain unemployed and democrats say there is proof republicans are to blame. Thats next. And 2013 didnt turn out to be the year for Anthony Weiner. Dont worry the disgraced congressman now speculating on his plans for 2014. Could he be running again? Wisest kid, am I forgetting something? No holidays complete without Campbells green bean casserole. Wish you were here. [Doorbell] [gasps] [gong] [wisest kid] mm! Mm! Good! And ah, so you can see like right here I can just You know, check my policy here, add a car, ah speak to customer service, check on a claim you know, all with the ah, tap of my Geico app. Oh, thats so cool. Well, I would disagree with you but, ah, that would make me a liar. No dude, youre on the jumbotron! Whoa. AH yeah, pretty much walked into that one. Geico anywhere anytime.
